- What is meant by incitement to racial hate or violence?
Racial hate means criticism grounded on the sole basis of ethnicity, or skin colour. Acts of prejudice and hostility against any race, or for that matter, on grounds of sex, sexual orientation, or religion, are prohibited by the law as incitement to hatred.

Incitement to violence means encouraging people to attack others, physically or psychologically, like whatever is written or said must create harm.

- With regard to drugs and specifically marijuana, can I give my opinion?
Marijuana is considered to be a drug, so you can't encourage other people to smoke or sell it. If you want to give your opinion on its legalisation, its trafficking, or any other drug-related subject, be very careful about not treading into what could legally be qualified as incitement. The risk is all the greater since the Skyrock Blog audience overwhelmingly consists of minors.

In practical terms, be vigilant about the images and language you use, and exercise your critical judgement so as to avoid legal troubles.

Are pornography and eroticism forbidden?
On Skyrock.com, eroticism is authorised and pornography is prohibited. What's the line between the two, you ask? There's no easy answer since it depends on individual beliefs. If you're shocked by an image, or think someone younger than you could also be shocked, flag the material as inappropriate and we'll look into the matter.

General: Use protection

Because you can never be safe enough, the Skyrock Team would like to suggest to you some safety tips:

- Create a unique password that combines numbers and letters, or symbols. Ex: Skyrock2
- Choose a password that's different from your username
- Have a different password for all your web accesses: email, IM, etc.
- Avoid passwords that'd be easy to guess, like your birthday, or the names of your pet, family, or friends

And finally:

- NEVER GIVE YOUR PASSWORD TO ANYONE. Skyrock will never ask you for it. If you receive an email asking for your password, ignore it or send it to us here. Remember that all emails from Skyrock have a "@skyrock.com" address.
- SKYROCK CAN ONLY BE ACCESSED ON WWW.SKYROCK.COM. Be careful of fake sites pretending to give provide access via another URL.

PS: You can always change your password by going into your account settings.
