

Toxic

START THE GAME:

- Roll the die to decide who starts the game. Whoever rolls the highest number goes first.

ROLLING A SIX:

- If you roll a six, you do not get to roll again.

'DRAW CARD' SPACE:

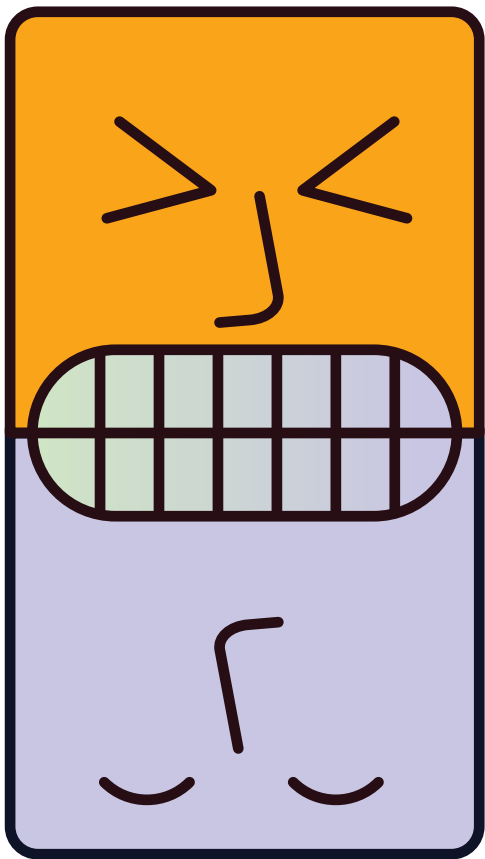

- If you land on a 'draw card' space during another player's turn, start your turn by drawing a card.
- Once you've drawn a card, roll the die to start your turn.
- If you land on a new 'draw card' space during the same turn, read the card before your turn ends.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS:

- When you draw a reflection question, read it aloud. All players must participate in the reflection.

HOW TO WIN:

- To win, you must reach the finish by rolling the exact number needed.

Reflection

You're gaming with a friend who starts saying mean things to other players. You're not okay with it, but you're afraid that your friend won't play with you if you speak up. What would you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

Your friend's parents have just got divorced, and he often gets very angry during football practice and starts fights. What feelings do you think are behind his anger?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

Many of your friends have started wearing an expensive clothing brand. You want the same clothes, but your parents say they're too expensive. You're worried you won't fit in if you don't have this clothing brand. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

While playing an online game, someone you're playing with says cruel things to other players because they're girls. You tell them to cut it out, but then they start saying cruel things to you, too. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

Alex takes a picture of Sam without asking, and Sam doesn't want the picture to be shared. Alex thinks it's funny and sends it to you on Snapchat. You also find the picture funny and want to share it with others. How do you think Sam will feel if you share the photo?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

A friend from primary school glares at you and spreads lies about you to others. You feel hurt by this. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You've been chatting every day with someone you like in your class, but then they suddenly stop replying to your messages. You can see you're being left on read. You're confused and upset. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

At school, someone starts joking that Nick is fat. He laughs it off, but you can tell he doesn't find it funny. You also laugh because everyone else does. How do you think Nick feels?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You and some friends are playing football after school. Suddenly, David and Elias start arguing after a hard tackle, and it looks like they're going to fight. You know both of them and know that they're actually friends. You can try to stop the argument, observe, or go and tell an adult. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You've joined a new group of friends at school and bring your best friend, Mary, along to meet them. In the park, Mary says something inappropriate, and you see that your new friends react by becoming upset with you. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

Amir, a refugee from Syria, has just started in your class. You want to get to know him, but you don't speak the same language. How can you make the new pupil feel welcome in the class?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You're chatting online with an older boy/girl who you think is cool, but you've never met. The person thinks you're cute and asks you to send pictures that you think are a bit inappropriate. The person promises not to share them with others. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

Mia feels let down by her best friend, Lina. So Mia spreads a rumour that Lina has been telling secrets to another group of friends. This causes a lot of trouble in the group of friends. What reasons could Mia have for starting the rumour?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

An influencer you follow says that to look good, you need to eat less, drink lots of water and exercise early in the morning. You've been trying this for a week, but feel tired and hungry. Will you continue with this routine even if it's only been a week?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You hear a rumour that a girl you know is hitting on all the boys on social media. You don't believe it's true. If you tell your friends that the rumour is false, you may become less popular in your group of friends. Will you stand up for what you think is right, or remain silent?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

Your friend is hanging out with someone who is mean to others and asks you to join them. You don't like the way they behave. Do you hang out with them anyway, or decide not to join them?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Refleksjon

A friend starts hanging out with others instead of you because they say you're not cool enough. Do you think this is how real friends treat each other? How would you handle this?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

A friend says he's joined a group that organises fights and invites you to join. Do you join or not?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

A friend offers you a job selling vapes to younger teenagers. Do you take the job or not?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

If you post private pictures of your ex online as a form of revenge, what do you think will happen?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You're added to a Snapchat group. In the group, you notice that others are speaking ill of someone who's been removed from the group. What would you do in this situation?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Reflection

You're added to a private Snapchat group. Someone in the group says that your friend Max isn't cool enough to join the group. You know Max is going to be upset about being left out. What do you do?

Reflect on the topic and choose who gets to move:

1. You move forward two spaces.
2. Everyone moves forward one space.
3. You move forward one space, but everyone else has to move back one space.

Toxic

Turn to the player on your left and say the following:

Hope you die

Choose:

1. The player to your left moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your right and say the following:

Fucking whore

Choose:

1. The player to your right moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your left and say the following:

You're fat and ugly

Choose:

1. The player to your left moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your right and say the following:

F*ck you bitch

Choose:

1. The player to your right moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your left and say the following:

Hang yourself

Choose:

1. The player to your left moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your right and say the following:

Fat useless cunt

Choose:

1. The player to your right moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your left and say the following:

I'm going to kill you

Choose:

1. The player to your left moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your right and say the following:

Shut the f*ck up bitch

Choose:

1. The player to your right moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your left and say the following:

Nobody likes you

Choose:

1. The player to your left moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Toxic

Turn to the player on your right and say the following:

Stupid fucking dickhead

Choose:

1. The player to your right moves forward one space
2. You move forward one space

Joker

Sometimes life is really unfair.
The leading player and the player
furthest behind swap places.

Joker

Things are heating up! Proceed to the next 'draw card' space and draw another card!

Joker

Double the luck! Anyone who rolls six during the next turn gets two additional rolls.

Joker

You're so bored. Nothing's happening. Next player's turn.

Joker

Someone's been talking behind your back, and you're upset. Move back four spaces.

Joker

Your friends love you and have bought you a gift!

Use this card to avoid falling down the ladder or to avoid drawing a toxic card/joker card.

The card may only be used once.

Joker

The sun is shining and you've just received a compliment from someone you like. Move forward four spaces!

Joker

See things from a new perspective! You and the player to your right switch places on the board.

Joker

Someone has called you a loser.
Return to start.

Joker

You've met someone new who seems really nice! Roll the die one more time.

Joker

You're left out of your friends' Snapchat group. Skip the next turn.