

Training teachers

Basic ICT skills
Edidactics

Barbara Buchegger

improving classroom activities

Being able to help pupils

What we need ...

Teacher training becomes a habit..

ICT competences, pupils can take serious

Open for new ideas
and new methods

Paradigm change is becoming reality

Who is /should be trained?

Kindergarten ped. ,
teachers

Teacher trainers

School
administration, esp.
headteachers

Coordinators,
project managers

Who is offering training?

NGO's,
e.g. media training
centers, parents
organizations

schools

Awareness centers

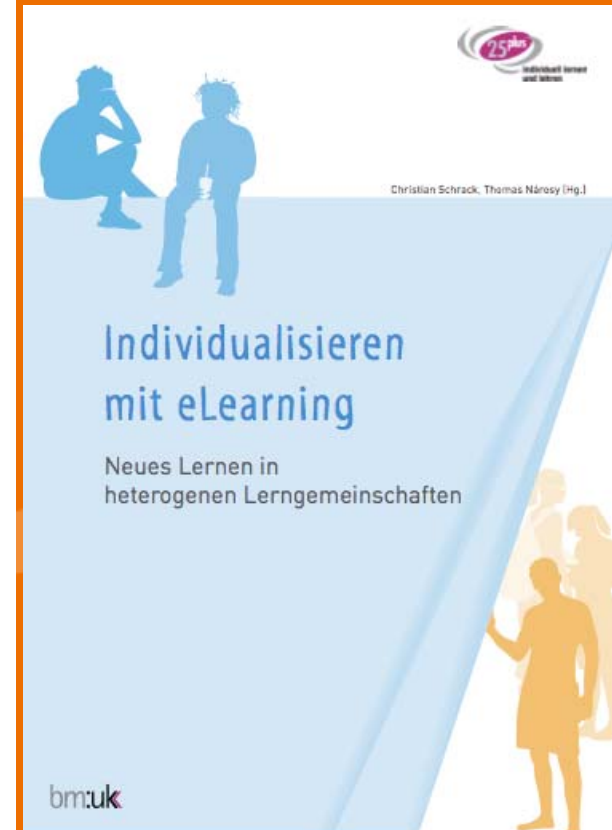

Pedagogical institutions,
Teacher training institutions

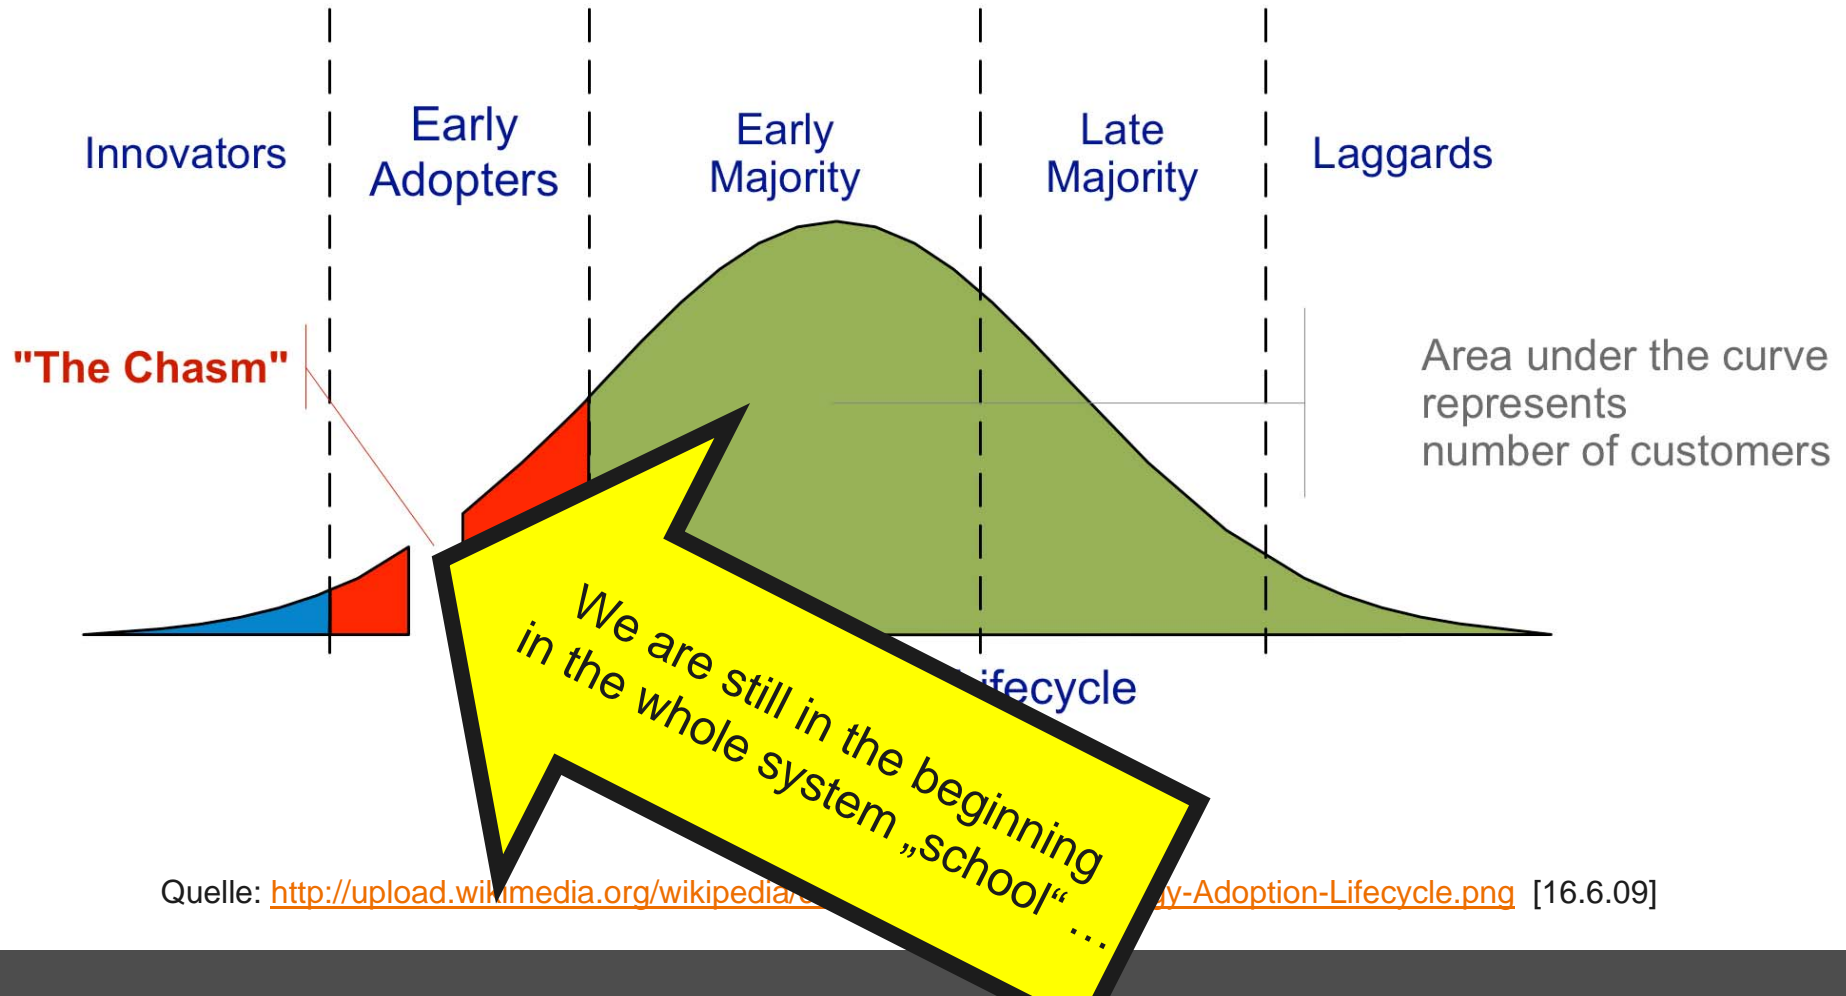

Strategies

- Pedagogic- new trends:
 - Personalized learning
 - Self determined learning (e.g. Klippert)
- Changing teacher role: coach
- ICT just one tool in classrooms
- Teachers training in subjects and didactical principles

Why does it take so long?

Content in Training

Internet use by young people in their daily life

- Internet and mobile phone as part of their daily life
- Risks for young people using the web
- Cyber-Mobbing

Legal aspects

- Privacy and data protection
- „Recht auf das eigene Bild“
- Intellectual property rights
- Dealing with fotos in schools

Using internet sources for teaching

- Preparing teachers material - sources and licences
- CreativeCommons Licence
- Web 2.0 Applications and possibilities using them within teaching
- Using and dealing with mobile phones

It is getting better, but still...

„It is very important!“

„I do not wish to participate.
Somebody else should.“

Motivation

Training and exchange with others

Time for something new

Pressure by school authority

Motivated pupils

Pressure by parents

50+ teachers

- Over 50% of Austrian teachers are older than 50 years

How?

Online Courses

Face to face training

Learning and working in a team

E-Buddy

Social networks, LMS

Content and lots of ideas

Pupils as trainers and coaches for teachers

